

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

WAR MUMPS

Looks Like She's Going to Have Them on Both Sides

Victims of the Foot and Mouth Disease

"Dearie, did you roll up your cuffs?"

"Onward, Christian Soliders!"

THE DOOR OF MANY REVOLUTIONS

AN ORIENTAL REVISION

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

NORTH STONINGTON

Holiday Gathering at Thompson Home—Grandson of Former Pastor at Congregational Church.

One of the largest family gatherings Thanksgiving was that of the Samuel Thompson family, held at the residence of Frank A. Thompson.

Prescher From Mansfield. Rev. Edward Ayer of Mansfield Center supplied the pulpit of the Congregational church last Sunday and was heard with much pleasure.

Mr. Ayer is a grandson of Rev. Joseph Ayer, who closed a ten years' pastorate with this church in 1887. Mr. Ayer was accompanied to North Stonington by Mrs. Ayer and they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John L. York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Vermont is visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. H. Chambers. Mrs. William Richardson is seriously ill at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard.

Thanksgiving Service. A Thanksgiving service was held in the Third Baptist church Wednesday evening. Rev. G. H. Chambers preached. Rev. Lucian Drury assisted in the opening exercises.

Votes for Women. The subject of votes for women was presented in Grange hall Friday evening in connection with the regular grange meeting by Miss Emily Pearson.

Rev. Mr. Foster of Columbia will supply the pulpit of the Congregational church next Sunday.

SALEM

Fourteen Mile Hike to Attend Church—Equal Franchise Rally—Death of Samuel Hanny.

Rev. W. H. Crawford of New Britain occupied the pulpit in the Congregational church last Sunday morning and evening, preaching sermons of inspiration and power. His subject in the morning was Joshua, the greatest military leader the world has ever known. In the evening he was Power.

Mrs. Geo. Clark had charge of the opening service in the evening. Mr. Smith, manager of the Colchester Boys' club and Ray Squires also of Colchester, took a fourteen mile hike last Sunday evening. They planned to attend the service at the Congregational church here, but arrived too late. On their return trip they were accompanied by Rev. W. H. Crawford who is at present manager of the Boys' club in New Britain.

Sunday School Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Sunday school in Grange hall last Friday evening was well attended and a neat sum was added to the treasury. Readings, recitations, dialogues, and songs were given. Wellesley Hanney rendered violin solos in a pleasing manner. Sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served after the entertainment.

Equal Franchise Meeting. Monday evening a meeting was held in Grange hall under the auspices of the state organizers of the Equal Suffrage league. Herbert Houston, master of the grange, presided. Miss Isabel Sanders of Chicago, Miss Alyse Gregory of Norwalk addressed the audience in an interesting manner. Mrs. J. Eldred Brown of Norwich recited a poem on Suffrage.

Death of Former Resident. Winfield Hanney and family were in Waterford Monday attending the funeral of Mr. Hanney's father, Samuel Hanney, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George A. Forsyth, Mallory Hill, Waterford, last Friday after a brief illness with pneumonia. Samuel Hanney was a resident of this town for many years, being a prosperous farmer in the Gardner Lake section.

Charles S. Ray and daughter, Miss Katherine Ray, spent Saturday of last week in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Webster and two children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Webster.

Mrs. Sherwood Miner was the guest of relatives in Niantic Monday.

Mrs. Julia Spencer spent Sunday at her home in town.

Miss Pearl Brown is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown.

Mrs. Sherwood Miner is entertaining relatives from Hilon, N. Y.

Thanksgiving Party. The schools in town closed Wednesday for the Thanksgiving recess. In the first district taught by Miss Katherine Ray, the pupils enjoyed a party. Competitions on Thanksgiving Day were read and fruit, pop corn and candy were served by Miss Ray.

A special meeting of the members of the Congregational church is called for this (Saturday) afternoon to decide on the matter of hiring a minister and shingling the church sheds.

Rev. W. H. Crawford, of New Britain is expected to preach again next Sunday evening.

LIBERTY HILL

Pastor and Family at Salem, Mass.—Social of C. E. Society.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Trotter of Newton, Mass., were guests of Mrs. Trotter's mother, Mrs. E. A. Noyes, on Thanksgiving.

Rev. Elwell O. Mead and family spent Thanksgiving in Salem, Mass. They will stay over Sunday and Mr. Mead will preach in the First Church of Malden.

John Clarke was in Norwich Monday on business.

Rev. W. E. Lamphar will occupy the pulpit at Liberty Hill and Exeter Sunday next.

Village Hill residents welcome Mail Carrier Cummings back and are glad he has bought a home there.

W. W. Palmer and family and his son, Wallace, and wife, spent Thanksgiving at Malden, Mass.

C. E. Social. The C. E. society held a very interesting social at the hall Friday evening.

Rev. E. O. Mead preached an able Thanksgiving sermon Sunday, taking for his subject, Gratitude.

The attendance at the prayer meeting Wednesday night equalled more church than half the membership of the

LEBANON

Miss Dorothy Gould of Woburn, Mass., is visiting at Mrs. A. E. Hewitt's.

George Wilcox was at E. A. Hoxie's over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Clark, Mrs. William Hinkley, Mrs. Charles Hinkley and two sons, were at C. M. Geer's one day last week.

Miss Adel Spaulding and Flora Spaulding were in Norwich, Monday. Schools in town closed Wednesday for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Edith L. Tucker was in Williamstown Wednesday.

Charles Abell of New Britain and Clara Abell of Naugatuck spent Thanksgiving at C. J. Abell's.

CLARK'S FALLS

Mrs. Pierpont Green, who has been spending several weeks in this village, left for New York Wednesday morning.

Monday an inspector examined the boiler at the falling mill.

Mrs. Doris Collins, who has been ill with throat trouble, is able to be out.

A large quantity of birch twigs brought into the yard where the mill is located, is estimated at two hundred tons.

Mrs. Kate Pickering enjoyed Thanksgiving with friends at Ashaway.

CHESTERFIELD

Miss Vera Smith returned home to Niantic Sunday after spending a week here.

Matt A. Tinker is attending to town affairs at Montville Center.

Mrs. Earl Lathrop and children have returned home after spending a few weeks here.

Mr. Auwood, the R. F. D. carrier, has returned to the route after a vacation.

Miss Mary Tinker has returned home after spending four months in Battle Creek, Mich.

Herbert Turner of East Lake Pond local in the pulpit Tuesday night.

School closed Wednesday night for Thanksgiving vacation.

Supervisor Carlton E. Wheeler was here Tuesday visiting schools.

A baked bean supper for the benefit of the Methodist church is being planned.

Louis Kaplan spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kaplan.

The children in this vicinity enjoyed their first skating Tuesday, Nov. 24, on the pond owned by Mr. Powers.

Isaac Kaplan recently purchased a new horse from parties in North Lyme.

LAUREL GLEN

Egg Within an Egg Shown—Gray Fox Shot.

Mrs. Skinner and daughter, Elva, and Rosa Cragg attended church on Sunday.

There was preaching service in the chapel last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Van Horn of Ashaway.

Charles Marble and Willis Almy were business callers in Westerly on Monday.

Ell King is working for Malcolm Thompson on the B. C. Palmer wood lot at Pendleton Hill.

Mrs. Dwight Main has a hen which laid an egg that measured nine inches by seven inches. When broken it was found to contain the white of an egg and a full sized egg with shell, white and yolk.

George Hill visited Westerly this week.

School closed Wednesday for the Thanksgiving recess.

Alfred and Mary Partlow of Ashaway visited their aunt, Mrs. Mary Main, last Saturday.

Paul and Perry Main shot a gray fox this week.

ASHWILLETT

D. S. Gulle and family moved to their new home in Poquetanuck during the week.

Mrs. Edwards an aged lady, is seriously ill at the home of her son, Isaac Edwards.

Otto Anderson was a business caller in New York the latter part of last week.

A. A. Morgan has gone to stay a while with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson.

John Casey has taken possession of his new home on Cassaduct hill which he recently purchased from Mrs. O. Steadman. The thermometer was 1 degree early Tuesday morning.

LEDYARD

Sunday Evening Caller Has Annoying Experience—New Owner of Shewville Has 16,000 Acres.

Everett Thompson, who lives in the southern part of the town was a Sunday evening visitor of Miss Laura Clark. Mr. Thompson un hitched his horse and fastened him in an open shed. Some time in the evening the horse freed himself and wandered away. Mr. Thompson, ready to go home at a late hour, found that his horse had gone. After searching for him in vain, thinking he had gone home, Mr. Thompson decided to stay all night. Being early he made another search but in vain. He then started walking for home, a distance of about twelve miles. After going about half the distance a telephone message reached him that his horse was at Mr. Clark's house in a nearby field. Mr. Thompson returned and found his steed grazing peacefully in the field. He thinks the next time he comes he will tie the horse securely so he can find him when he wishes to return.

Town Topics.

Miss Florence Geer was a week end and Sunday visitor with Mrs. Eleanor Smith of Franklin.

Rev. O. G. Buddington of Mystic supplied the pulpit of the Congregational church on Sunday morning, preaching from Ecclesiastes 3: 11: Eternity in the Human Heart. It was a powerful sermon, preached without notes and was closely listened to.

Attorney Edwin G. Norman of Worcester was a week end and Sunday guest of his mother, Mrs. Thomas P. Norman.

Four Turkeys Raised. Many turkeys raised in town were killed for the Thanksgiving trade. Most of them were sold in Norwich, Westerly and Mystic, but not as many were raised as last year. The prices ranged from 38 cents wholesale to 42 cents retail.

Shewville is beginning to show signs of growth. Since Calvin Wilcox purchased the place he has repaired the houses and has three tenants besides occupying one house himself. Mr. Wilcox is a large landholder, owning about 16,000 acres in different towns. Most of it is timberland.

All the schools closed on Wednesday for the Thanksgiving recess.

NIANTIC

New Pier at Cove—Funeral of Mrs. Henry B. Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hart of Hartford are making a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell.

Capt. N. W. Rogers and a force of men from F. A. Beckwith's are working on the macadam roads about the village putting them in shape for the new ton droning soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eager of New London are here during the serious

Henry B. Goodenough of Hartford was a caller in the Pines last week.

W. H. Dorman and George Smith of the Farm are building a pier at the cove which will be used when the vic chemical auto fire engine has a call to Pine Grove. The dock is being built mostly of sand and will be strong enough to hold the big engine which will be used to pump water from the cove to the tank to be forced to any part of the Grove where needed.

Burial in New London. The body of Mrs. Henry B. Harding, who died Monday evening at her cottage in the Pines, was taken to New London Tuesday by auto-hearse. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home of her son, Leo S. Denison, in New London. Mrs. Harding had been ill about ten days, suffering from pleurisy.

Capt. and Mrs. N. J. Huntley closed their residence Wednesday and left for Hartford to pass the winter.

Joseph Stiert of New York spent Sunday at his home in the village.

Ernest Meade has gone to Mystic to work.

F. A. Ashton has a large amount of carpenter work at Crescent Beach which he is rushing to completion, as he expects to leave soon for his winter home in Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Way of Meriden passed the holiday with Mr. Way's mother, Mrs. Martha Way.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Knappenberg have returned from a visit to Hartford, Windham and Meriden.

Winfield J. Manwaring of New Haven was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Manwaring at Fair Harbour Tuesday.

Moves to Hicks Place. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Neade have moved from the Parlo house to the Hicks place in York avenue.

Mrs. Elijah Buckingham has gone to Westerly to visit Mrs. J. J. McCann.

Joseph Perrino, who purchased the Harrison Chappell place some time ago, has finished building an addition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hunting have closed their cottage and returned to Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alden have gone to Southbridge, Mass., to spend the holiday.

R. B. S. Washburn and George F. Tubbs of Norwich were visitors in the Pines Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Manwaring closed their cottage in the Pines Saturday and moved to their winter residence in Niantic, Fair Harbour.

Mr. Annie Gross of Hartford, a summer visitor to the Grove, has purchased the Burdick cottage in Orchard street.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam F. Bishop have returned from a visit to relatives in New Haven.

Walter E. Waldorf, employed in Hartford, spent the week end at his home in the village.

LEFFINGWELL

Miss Gladys Leffingwell and Miss Ella Leffingwell attended the annual convention of the Norwich Christian Endeavor union at Boxrah Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dolbear spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers of Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Beebe returned home Saturday from New Jersey, where they have been spending a short time with their son Daniel.

NORTH LYME

Miss Evelyn Chapman of Willington visited Mrs. Ethel Maczani recently.

Mrs. W. M. Blason and W. A. Blason, Jr., were in East Lyme and New London one day last week.

Mrs. Frances Tideman who has been visiting at W. A. Blason's for several months, returned to her home in East Lyme last week.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford has been visiting at H. B. Maynard's this week.

The Ladies Mission circle met with Mrs. Fred Miner last Thursday afternoon, with a large attendance. A very interesting talk on the suffering of the Belgians was given by Mrs. Mary Fosdick.

Mr. and Mrs. George Babcock visited at Willis Sandings at Rockway last Sunday.

Everett Pither with a party of friends from Norwich, motored to Merrill Babcock's Sunday.

GRISWOLD

Ten patrons from Pachaus attended the grange at Ekons last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montgomery and daughter Mildred, Harry and Francis, and Fred Edmond were callers on William A. Weeks of Danvers last Sunday.

George Geer of Battle was a business caller in town this week.

Walter morning the mercury at V. C. Campbell's was 6 degrees above zero and 4 above at the Edmonds home.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Robert Dixon shot a fox November 26.

Miss Marian Blakeslee is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Lebanon.

Miss Grace E. Lamphar is spending Thanksgiving vacation at White Oak farm.

Mrs. Sarah Green is visiting her son in Moscow.

William's auto is drawing lumber from the Franklin farm.

CATARH CAN NOT BE CURED with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the best medicine on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was practically unknown combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

J. J. CHERRY & CO., Prop., Toledo, O. Sole U. S. Dispensary, price 10c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Don't Delay Treating Your Cough. A slight cough often becomes serious. Lungs get congested, bronchial tubes fill with mucus, your vitality is reduced. You need Dr. Bell's Pink-Tar-Honey. It soothes your irritated air passages, loosens mucus and makes your system resist colds. Give the baby and children Dr. Bell's Pink-Tar-Honey. It's guaranteed to help them. Only 25c at your druggist.